

MARYANN LISAK, R.N., M.S., P.N.P.

EDUCATION

- 2011-2012 ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY
Fellowship, Pediatric and Adolescent Mental Health
Phoenix, AZ
Completed July 2012
- 1985-1987 YALE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING
Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Program
New Haven, Connecticut
Master of Science in Nursing, May 1987
- 1977-1979 BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING
Boston, Massachusetts
Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Cum Laude, 1979
- 1975-1977 OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
Columbus, Ohio
Liberal Arts

LICENSURE

RN License, Vermont 26-0019912

CERTIFICATION

NAPNAP, Pediatric Nurse Practitioner

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

March, 1995 –
present

PEDIATRIC NURSE PRACTITIONER
Hagan, Rinehart & Connolly Pediatricians, PLLC
Burlington, Vermont

Responsibilities: Provide health care maintenance and management of episodic and chronic illnesses for pediatric population. Also provide hospital care to well newborns and stable or convalescent pediatric patients. Clinical preceptor for graduate – level nursing students.

July, 1992 -
February, 1993

CONSULTANT
Vermont Department of Health
Public Health Analysis and Policy
Burlington, Vermont

Responsibilities: collection and reporting of information regarding the use of maternal serum alpha-fetoprotein testing in Vermont and other states. Final report contained alternatives and recommendations for the Vermont program.

July, 1991 -
April, 1993

NEONATAL NURSE PRACTITIONER
Neonatal Intensive Care Unit
Medical Center Hospital of Vermont, Burlington

Responsibilities: Evaluation, stabilization and ongoing care of newborns presenting with a wide variety of medical problems. Employment was temporary/per-diem, part-time.

May, 1989 -
December, 1990

PEDIATRIC NURSE PRACTITIONER
Sickle Cell and Thalassemia Program
Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, California

Program providing comprehensive multidisciplinary care to approximately 150 minority patients. Responsibilities: Develop and coordinate program. Act as a liaison between inpatient and outpatient services. Provide education to patients, families, nursing and medical staff. Develop and implement standards of care. Perform history, physical assessment, management of acute illnesses, and health care maintenance.

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE (continued)

March, 1988 -
May, 1989

PEDIATRIC NURSE PRACTITIONER, EMERGENCY ROOM
Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, California

Active urban emergency room within a tertiary care facility, which cares for approximately 160 patients per day, many of whom are from multiproblem inner city families. Responsibilities: Perform history, physical assessment and management of acute illness for children aged birth through adolescence. Provide formal and informal education for parents and nursing staff.

August, 1987 -
March, 1988

PEDIATRIC NURSE PRACTITIONER, NEWBORN NURSERY
Harbor-UCLA Medical Center
Torrance, California

Forty bed well baby nursery within a large general Los Angeles county hospital which provides tertiary perinatal care. Responsibilities: coordinate care for all well newborns. Perform physical assessment and management of common neonatal problems. Provide formal and informal education for medical students, parents, and nursing staff. Deliver short-term outpatient follow-up for newborns with minor problems.

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATIONS

Lisak, M.E. (1991). Primary Care Needs of Children With Sickle Cell Disease. In P.L. Jackson & J.A. Vassey (Eds.), Primary Care of Children With Chronic Conditions. St. Louis: C.V. Mosby, 1991.

Lisak, M.E. (1987). Factors Affecting Neonatal Intensive Care Units' Provision of Death Follow-Up Programs to Bereaved Parents.

Unpublished Master's Thesis, Yale University School of Nursing, New Haven, Connecticut.

Survey of 150 Nurses working in Neonatal Intensive Care Units across the continental United States which correlates the nurses' knowledge base, values, and enabling factors with their participation in death follow-up programs offered to the bereaved parents of their patients.